Symposium Schedule

09:30 am – 10:30 am	Registration – Brunch
10:15 am – 10:30 am	Announcements
10:30 am – 11:30 am	Dr. Jacola will provide an overview of Intellectual Developmental Disorder, including diagnostic frameworks; incidence, etiology, and risk factors; and approaches to prevention. She will review IDD neurobehavioral profiles and developmentally informed approaches to assessment and intervention.
11:30 am – 12:00 pm	Break - Snack
12:00 pm – 01:00 pm	Dr. Crabtree will discuss the importance of sleep as a fundamental pillar of physical and mental health, especially in youth. She will describe changes in sleep/wake rhythm over the lifetime and how very early school start times are detrimental to the health of teenagers as well as those around them.
01:00 pm – 01:15 pm	Break
01:15 pm – 02:15 pm	Dr. Allen will provide an overview of the incidence of mental health problems in Adolescents and Young Adults with Cancer (AYAC), and outline why interventions and programs specifically targeting AYAC are warranted. She will identify what AYAC cite as important factors in their care, review interventions developed for AYAC, and describe special considerations for age-appropriate intervention and program development.
